one of those Portuguese gold coins of which I purchased two today.
I wish to give it to my son in law for a pocket piece. I want one in fine condition, like those I bought today.

The century dictionary says they are "Joes" not half Joes. The Portuguese form of John is "Joao" and they are probably so called from having been first coined in the reign of a ~~the~~ Portuguese King John.

Dear Friends

I have your letter

I today with bill of coins bought at the sale, which I have looked over and find all correct and the purchases are entirely satisfactory and I thank you for using your good judgment in the matter.

I enclose my cheque for $ 278⁰⁴ being amt of your bill with $ 2⁰⁰ added for selling the proof English sett to Mr. Eagle.

I only notice that # 260 which you put in bill as 2 pieces $ 29⁰⁰, was in the catalogue only 1 Piece and as it was very rare I presume the $ 29⁰⁰ was the cost of the one coin. It is quite satisfactory. The Doctor makes me take things very easily, too much & for my liking but I hope to get downtown in a few days. I am glad that you rented the Lake Placid cottage at so good a rent.
